HHS will distribute funds to physicians who participate in Medicaid and CHIP

From the American Medical Association:

The AMA has continued to press the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) to swiftly distribute funds to assist those physicians who have not previously received any money from the Provider Relief Fund. The AMA is pleased the department announced it is moving forward to provide some relief.

HHS expects to distribute approximately $15 billion to eligible physicians and organizations that participate in state Medicaid programs and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and have not received a payment from the Provider Relief Fund General Allocation. The payment to each provider will be at least 2 percent of reported gross revenue from patient care; the final amount each provider receives will be determined after the data is submitted, including information about the number of Medicaid patients providers serve.

Before applying through the enhanced provider relief portal, applicants should:
